

MAG Bulletin

Published by the DCI/MAG

May 1986

DCI/MAG IN-HOUSE SPEAKER'S PROGRAM

The Director's Management Advisory Group is pleased to sponsor Mr. James H. Taylor, Executive Director, as an in-house guest speaker. Mr. Taylor will address the Agency on current issues and the challenges for the future. The session will take place on:

Tuesday, 10 June 1986
2:00-3:15 p.m.
Headquarters Auditorium

Mr. Taylor received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Occidental College, Los Angeles, in 1960 and did graduate work in International Affairs at American University in Washington, D.C., 1961-62.

After tours with the Foreign Service and the Office of Management and Budget, Mr. Taylor joined the Central Intelligence Agency in 1973 as Deputy Comptroller. He was named Comptroller in mid-1976. In 1979 he was appointed to the position of Associate Deputy Director for Science and Technology. In 1982 Mr. Taylor became Inspector General, following which he was appointed to his present position of Executive Director. In 1978 Mr. Taylor was presented the Arthur S. Flemming Award for outstanding accomplishments in the management of CIA and the Intelligence Community.

The Executive Director's appearance is sponsored by the DCI/MAG. It is intended to aid communication between employees and management on subjects of general interest. The format is designed to allow a face-to-face meeting to share information and discuss mutual problems. Following Mr. Taylor's remarks there will be a question and answer session.

Attendance at the program is open to all badged personnel and is on a first-come, first-seated basis. As a courtesy to the speaker and the rest of the audience, you are asked to remain seated until the conclusion of the program.

Administrative—Internal Use Only